

Pastoral Council Ballot 2010

Each parishioner will choose three candidates for election after Mass on April 24th and 25th

	Ken Conrad is 50 years old and has been a lifelong member of St. Andrew Parish. Ken graduated from St. Andrew the Apostle School, Jesuit High School and Our Lady of Holy Cross College where he received a BA in Business Administration. Ken is the father of three grown children and one younger daughter who graduated from St. Andrew the Apostle School and currently has a grandson in first grade at SAS. Ken, and his wife, Martha, are Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers. He also assists with the collection reconciliations. He is the son of Joel and Bob Conrad.
	Jorge Contreras was born and raised in New Orleans. He has been married for thirteen years to Iris. He has three children who attend St. Andrew the Apostle School, Jorge, Jr., Victoria and David. He has been an internist in Metairie for 10 years. He and his family have been attending St. Andrew Church since they moved into the parish in 1998. Jorge feels it is a real blessing to have such a wonderful parish and school just blocks from his house. He hopes to continue to be a part of this wonderful community. It is with this in mind that he has chosen to run for Pastoral Council.
	Debra Guidroz is a parishioner of St. Andrew Parish and has lived in Algiers for 28 years. Her two sons, Christopher and Jonathan, attended St. Andrew School. Debra has served on the Parish Council in the past and was active in her sons' school activities. She has taught Confirmation classes, served as Eucharistic Minister and Lector. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in education and is completing a Master of Pastoral Studies at Loyola in May 2010. She has taught seventh through twelfth grade English and Speech, and will now be certified to teach Religion. She is enthusiastic and hopes to serve St. Andrew's parish in its mission to bring God to people and people to God.
	James Junot, Jr., is a 51-year old life-long Algiers resident. He graduated from Holy Name of Mary, O. Perry Walker High, and Delgado Community College. He has been married for the last 18 years to Michelle and has two daughters, Emily and Renee. James has been a member of St. Andrew parish since 1973. He is employed by an international consulting engineering firm. James is also a reserve sergeant with the Plaquemines Parish Sheriff's office. He is a past Grand Knight of St. Andrew the Apostle Council Knights of Columbus and is also a 4th degree member of that organization.
