Dear Lectors,

Please note that if you are scheduled to read during the Tridium or Easter, Father requests that you dress to represent the holiness of this time. That means suits and ties for men and "Sunday dresses" for ladies, if possible. Also, the light is low so don't forget your glasses!!

For those reading at the Easter Vigil Mass, your reading is the reading in the book, we skip some, so the number tells you which to read. The Reader Number is your position in the reading lineup. There is no processional so please take a seat in the left side front row according to your number. Also, for all services, please be in church no later than 15 minutes prior to Mass starting for instructions! In church, not parking! We get nervous if everyone is not early!!

Thanks!!
